

Vermont Sports Hall of Fame Presents "Green Mountain Gold"

We are excited to give you an early heads-up about a soon-to-be-published book about the inductees in the Vermont Sports Hall of Fame.

Green Mountain Gold: Vermont's Sports Hall of Fame is headed to the printers and will be available soon.

The book, which is over 200 pages, will contain individual writeups on each of the Vermont inductees with plenty of color and black-and-white photographs.

The book also will have a forward about Vermont sports and legends written by former Sports Illustrated Senior Writer Alexander Wolff of Cornwall.

Also featured will be the annual Burlington Free Press High School Athletes of the Year – male and female.

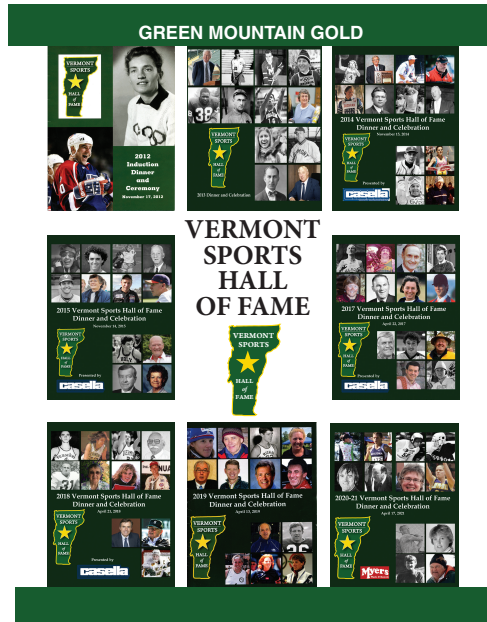

This is a "must-have" book for any Vermont sports fans interested in the greatest athletes, coaches and pioneers in Vermont sport's history.

The pre-publication price is $29.00 a book. It will cost $35 once printed and will be available at bookstores and other sites across Vermont.

We hope the 8 classes of inductees, their families, friends and fans will want to be the first to add this book to their personal libraries or to provide it as a gift for the upcoming holiday season or for some other special occasion.

Any profits from the book will be split between the Vermont Sports Hall of Fame and its longtime designated charity: Prevent Child Abuse Vermont. PCAV has received more than $19,000 from the annual induction banquets over the past several years.

The Vermont Sports Hall of Fame, launched in October 2011, is a nonprofit organization designed to recognize individuals whose achievements and efforts have enhanced sports, athletics and recreation in the Green Mountain State.
